

One Year Out Thurs., February 12, 2009

This special section provides an overview of the 2010 Vancouver games. It will preview the both the city and Whistler – the two key venues for the games. It will highlight our athletes – where Canada stands, what we can expect and who to watch for.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 2008

SPECIAL SECTION

OLYMPICS

MEDAL HUNTER
Hurdler Liu Xiang leads China's charge
PAGES R4-5

LARGER THAN LIFE
Yao Ming tries to lessen expectations
PAGE R8

REDEMPTION SONG
Penélope Felician gets a second chance
PAGE R7

One year out
Beijing Games begin 08/08/08

Putting athletes first since 1947.

As the longest standing corporate supporter of Canada's Olympic team, RSC's focus is to help our athletes get to the podium, as well as provide them with employment programs and skills to better prepare them for life after the Games. > RSC.com/sponsorship

ROYAL BANK FIRST FOR YOU

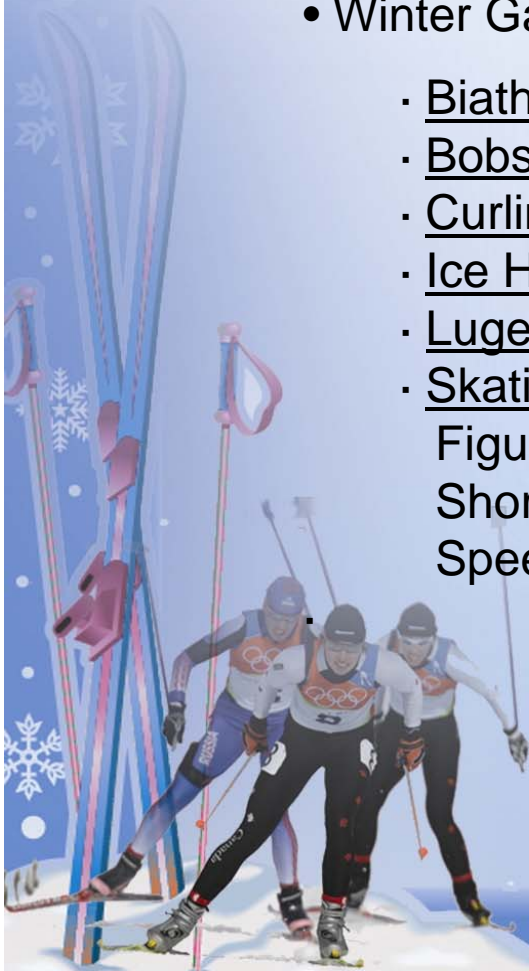

Booking deadline: Feb 4, 2009
Material deadline: Feb 6, 2009

Quick Facts about the Vancouver 2010 Winter Games

- 17 days of Olympic Games events – February 12-28, 2010
- 5,500 Olympic Games athletes and officials (projected)
- 80+ countries participating in Olympic Winter Games
- Winter Games includes 7 sports and 86 medal events:

- Biathlon
- Bobsleigh and Skeleton
- Curling
- Ice Hockey
- Luge
- Skating
 - Figure Skating
 - Short Track Speed Skating
 - Speed Skating

- Skiing
 - Alpine Skiing
 - Cross-Country Skiing
 - Freestyle Skiing
 - Nordic Combined
 - Ski Jumping
 - Snowboard

Toronto Star's commitment to the Winter Games

The Toronto Star will send the largest Winter Olympics team ever, complete with multimedia capability.

We will have teams of Star editorial staff stationed both main Olympic sites: Vancouver and Whistler.

Our team includes reporters, photographers, videographers and our star.com team, who'll be keeping a special Olympic site updated with all the breaking news and results.

